Winemaker's Notes:

Notes of red currant and black cherry fruit with hints of cranberry define the palate. Subtle earthy nuances are coming through on this well structured wine. The soft tannins are quite harmonious and intermingled with the vanilla oak in the background.

Cellar Age: 6-12 years

Food Pairings: Roasts, prime cuts of beef, lamb & bold cheeses

Pellegrini Vineyards, located in Cutchogue, NY on the eastern tip of Long Island, was originally planted in 1982. The vineyard is planted exclusively with the vinifera varieties chardonnay, merlot, cabernet franc and cabernet sauvignon. The winemaking technique employs traditional methods in combination with state-of-the-art equipment.
